Dan McMahon

One of the Corvette drivers to beat in 1960 and 61, Portland, Oregon based Dan McMahon was also active in club politics and served as President of both the Portland Sports Car Club and Conference in the era. Dan started out in an Alfa Romeo Sprint Coupe and in 1960 switched to the Corvettes for which he is better known. He was a manufactures representative by trade.