

Dick Hahn

Yakima's Dick Hahn only raced once, at the 1955 Mary Hill Hillclimb. He did well enough there to be banned from future racing -- by his parents, instead concentrating his efforts on the family car dealership. He became famous for his success of cars and the men who drove them, first Lew Florence and then Jerry Grant. With the Ferrari 250TR #0704, he and Grant dominated Northwest racing in the early 60s. Today Dick still owns the Yakima dealership.
